

Within 21 days after date judgment pronounced or leave granted, or by the date fixed by the court appealed from, the appellant to file a notice of appeal and serve it on each person who was a party in the proceeding in the court appealed from or given leave to intervene.

